

Applying Buddhist Psychology in Providing Spiritual Care

This independent study course is to be taken with the Buddhism and Acceptance and Commitment Therapy Course. Students are expected to reflect on their understanding of Buddhist psychology, their own personal meditative practice for the purpose of integrate them into their approach in providing spiritual care. Students are expected to submit a paper that encapsulates this synthesis (minimum of 6 pages).